CONFESSED THIEF GETS A SENTENCE

Hascall Clegg, Age 21, is Sentenced Today For Not Less Than 6 Months to 5 Years

ADMITTED THEFT OF AUTO

Abandoned Machine Near New Salem, But Changed His Plea After First Denying His Guilt

Hascall Clegg, age 21 years, who pleaded guilty a few days ago to the charge of vehicle taking, and was sent back to jail to await the sentence, was arraigned this morning before Judge Sparks, and received a sentence of not less than six months nor more than five years at the State reformatory.

It will be recalled that Clegg abandoned an automobile about two weeks ago near New Salem, and was seen by several people leaving it, which accounted for his arrest. He was traced to Morristown, where his wife is said to reside.

The machine was later identified as belonging to a man living in Cumberland, and Clegg was suspected of having an accomplice or two in the stealing of the machine, and he was sent back to jail in an effort to compel him to tell the truth, but he never divulged the other names, if there were any.

Following Clegg's arrest he denied stealing the machine and told a big story as to how he came to be in possession of it. His father, it is said, is the Rev. Henry Clegg of Morristown, and several of the relatives came here last Sunday and consulted with the boy in jail, when he confessed to the truth.

He was then given a hearing on Monday, and after pleading guilty his sentence was not passed until this morning. Sheriff Jones will leave in a day or so for Jeffersonville with the prisoner.

Clegg has been employed on the state highway near Arlington, as a truck driver, and is said to have married a Miss Wicker, daughter of the town marshal at Morristown.

SCHWAB DENIES HE HAD EXPENSE ACCOUNT

Former Head of Emergency Fleet Corporation Witness Before House Investigating Committee

DIDN'T GET DOLLAR A YEAR

(By United Press.)

New York, Jan. 21.—Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, flatly denied today that the sum of $260,000 for personal expenses in October 1918, had been charged against the shipping board while he was head of the emergency fleet corporation.

Appearing as a witness before the house committee investigating the shipping board, Schwab made a definite denial of the charges which were made by Col. Eugene H. Abadie former chairman of the shipping board.

"I got no money whatever from the government," Schwab declared. "I have put my very life into this cause and when I think of this suspicion which has risen against me, my regret is so deep, I hardly know how to express myself.

"Do you want us to understand you received no money at all while chairman," Schwab was asked.

"Why I did not even get a $1.00 a year," he replied.

HARDING LEAVES MARION

On Board President-Elect Harding's Train, Jan. 21.—With his troubles packed in a kit bag that he intends to keep tightly locked for at least two weeks, President-elect Harding turned his thought to golf sticks and fishing rods today as he journeyed southward for a vacation in Florida.

A fishing trip down the eastern shore of Florida is to occupy the first two weeks of his stay in the south.

NEW 2-STAMPS

Issued to Celebrate Tercentenary of Landing of Pilgrim Fathers

A supply of the new two cent stamps celebrating the tercentenary anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers in 1620, has been received at the Rushville postoffice and is being sold to customers.

They are the same color as the two-cent stamps which have been in use for some time but are different in size and design. They are oblong in shape and bear the year "1620" in the upper left-hand corner and the year "1920" in the upper right hand corner.

In the center is a picture of the Pilgrim Fathers landing a row boat from the Mayflower, which is shown in the background on the picture as a large sailing vessel. Below the picture is the inscription, "Landing of Mayflower."

$5,000 TAKEN IN THEFTS AT ST. PAUL

Hardware Store, Jewelry Store, Lumber Company and Elevator Safes Robbed Thursday Night

LOCAL TALENT SUSPECTED

No Explosives Used, Crude Methods Indicating Lack of Experience on Part of Yeggmen

Greensburg, Ind., Jan. 21.—Robbers last night broke into four safes in offices at St. Paul, ten miles west of this city, and escaped with money, securities and a speed indicator, the total loss being $5,000. The work is believed to have been done by local talent and persons not experienced as yeggmen. No explosives were used and no large safes were molested.

The combinations on the safes were jimmied or broken with heavy instruments.

Most of the loot was taken from the office of the St. Paul hardware store, where a small safe, belonging to a building and loan association, was broken into and approximately $4,000 in notes, and a sum of money, aggregating several hundred dollars, taken. The loss is said to be covered by insurance. A large safe in the same office belonging to the hardware company was not touched.

The cash register at the Kappes jewelry store was opened and 42 cents in change taken. The thieves made no attempt to open a large safe in this office.

At the St. Paul elevator the office safe was forced open with a pick and a machinery speed indicator, valued at $100, was taken. No money was in the safe, as the company's daily receipts are deposited in the bank each day. The St. Paul Lumber Company's safe was opened, but nothing of value taken.

No attempt was made to enter the bank. The authorities have no clew.

READY TO TESTIFY FOR SELF

Mrs. Louise Peete to Take Witness Stand in Murder Trial

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 21.—Still smiling, cheeks rosy, and apparently in robust health, Mrs. Louise Peete, 27, was ready to go before the court today to make her first attempt to battle for liberty.

The jury decisions in the case against Mrs. Peete, who is charged with killing Jacob Denton, wealthy mining broker, and hiding his body in the basement of his own home, was completed and the first principal witness called.

Today the state was to begin producing circumstantial evidence. District Attorney Thomas Woodbine declared that the evidence was so strong he would ask the death penalty.

ARLINGTON LOSES

The Connersville Legion team downed the Arlington Independents here last night on the Modern Appliance floor, the final score being 16 to 11. The game was slow, but the Connersville team kept a lead.

QUINN TRIAL MAY NOT OPEN MONDAY

Attorneys For Defendant Inform Court That Dunn's Brother is Under Quarantine

IS A WITNESS IN THE CASE

Thirty Names Drawn and Prospective Jurors Are Ordered to Report Monday Anyway

The murder trial in which Fred Dunn is charged with first degree murder, and which is scheduled to begin for the second time this term of court on Monday, may be delayed according to attorneys for the defendant who stated to the court this morning that one of the main witnesses, Albert Dunn of Illinois, and brother of the defendant, is under quarantine because of scarlet fever in his family.

The witness in his communication stated that there was a possibility of the quarantine being lifted before Monday, and the case will be set for trial anyway, but may have to be postponed at the last moment.

Thirty names have been drawn for jury service and the prospective jurors were being notified to report on Monday. In the list drawn are two talesmen, Alfred Caldwell and Elijah Billings, who cannot serve, owing to the fact that they sat on the jury during the former trial, when the jury disagreed.

The list includes the following men: Charles D. Morgan, Leroy Lines, Allen Jackman, Rex Innis, Dora Jackman and Julius King, Anderson township; George F. Erle, Horace E. Glidden, Washington; D. O. Alter, Orange; William M. Brooks, Charles G. Carney, Ben Beaver, Charles B. Kennedy, Noble; William H. Chance, Center.

J. W. Arbuckle, Walker; Elmer E. Ellison and Dora Baird, Jackson, and the following from Rushville township, Charles Hugo, E. A. Frazee, Bert Trabue, Alfred Caldwell, John H. Frazee, Elijah Billings, Jake Parrish and J. B. Pusey.

Henry Harves and John Reddick from Richland township and Alva D. Eakins and John F. Mapes from Union township.

Owing to the fact that Dunn was tried in the beginning of the same term of court, the regular jury panel cannot be used, and the court ordered the special venire of 30 names and in all probability it will be necessary to seek additional talesmen.

RALPH COX NAMED CITY COMMISSIONER

Former Rushville Boy Appointed to Position in Bartlesville, Okla., To Fill Vacancy

FORMERLY CITY TREASURER

Ralph S. Cox, son of Mrs. A. M. Cox, 1018 North Morgan street, has been appointed commissioner of finance and supplies and city clerk of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, where he has lived for a number of years, according to word received here.

Mr. Cox was selected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Commissioner Johnson, who served in that capacity under a commission form of city government for over six years. He severed his connection with the city management to become postmaster of Bartlesville. Mr. Cox has been city treasurer in the commissioner's office for four years. Concerning the former Rushville boy the Bartlesville Enterprise says:

"Mr. Cox has held a position as city treasurer in the commissioner's office for the last four years, during which time he has made many friends by his capable work and close attention to duty. He is well fitted for the new position which he assumes at once and his many friends join in extending the heartiest congratulations for his success in his new duties."

A FALSE ALARM

The fire department answered an alarm last night about nine o'clock to box 42, corner of Fifth and Harrison streets, but the alarm proved to be false.

ITEMIZED LIST IS NOT INCLUDED

Unpopular Feature of Tax Assessment is Removed in New Rules of The State Board

ARE PROMULGATED TODAY

Instead of Listing Household Goods Taxpayer is Required to Give Number of Rooms Only

Elimination of the itemized list of household goods from the personal property scheduled used in making assessments for taxation purposes, which is announced in the new rules of the state board of tax commissioners promulgated today, will meet with popular approval here, because the listing of household goods as required last year by the state board of every taxpayer, was the cause for many complaints.

The new orders of the state board governing tax assessments for this spring, which also include the advancement of all dates for filing applications for reassessment of real estate, had not been received here today by the county assessor, Earl F. Priest, but it was expected copies would arrive by tomorrow.

The new order of the board provides that instead of an itemized statement of household goods, that under the item of "Household furniture and library," that the number of rooms in the house be given.

Provision is made under the rules of the board for four methods of asking for re-assessment of real estate and the dates for filing applications for reassessment have been advanced in three cases. In the first instance, where a reassessment is asked by an individual owner of real estate, the last day for filing the application with the state tax board has been changed from May 1 to April 1. In cases where a taxpayer wishes a reassessment of real estate not his own, the application must be filed with the state board on or before March 21, instead of April 20, as provided in the old rules. In the event three county officers wish to file an application for a reassessment of real estate, the notice must be filed with the board on or before March 21, instead of April 20. The fourth method of reassessment is on the initiative of the tax board.

The complete text of the new rules governing assessment of personal property and real estate during 1921 is as follows:

"Under its power to prescribe and promulgate all forms of books, schedules, blanks, notices and all other papers required to be used in fully carrying out the purpose of the tax law, the state board of tax commissioners on Jan. 15, 1921, did

It is expected that the meeting will attract wide attention from all of the members of the township organization.

TO PROTEST PARK PROJECT

Porter County Organizations Object to Size of Playground

(By United Press)

Vaparaíso, Ind., Jan. 21.—A representative from Porter county's farmers' association and the Vaparaíso Chamber of Commerce will go to Indianapolis Tuesday to protest against the project of a dune park along Lake Michigan in Porter county.

The bill before the legislature calls for a park with a nine mile front and Porter county organizations mentioned think a three mile front sufficient.

They also object as a unit that Porter county be made into a big playground for surrounding counties, at the expense of the great industrial counties of the state.

WOULD EQUALIZE SCHOOL PRIVILEGE

Bill Introduced in House Today Provides For Boost in State Tax Levy to 20 Cents

TO HELP POORER COUNTIES

Rep. Jinnett's Bill Providing for Assessment of Real Estate Postponed Indefinitely

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21.—Representative Willis of Steuben county today introduced a bill in the state house of representatives which would boost the tax levy for common schools to 20 cents. The present state common school levy is 5.6 cents, on each $100 worth of taxable property.

The Willis bill provides that the money obtained from the commission tax rates shall be placed in the hands of the state treasury for disbursement.

The purpose of the bill, Representative Willis said, is to give the poorer counties the same educational opportunities that most of the state's wealthy counties have.

This method of taxation would put all schools on an equal basis, he stated.

Senator Arnold's bill for free text books in public schools was indefinitely postponed by the senate when that body adopted the report of the committee on education, recommending such action.

The bill had the support of a number of labor organizations.

The entire question of changing the senate rules was reopened today when Senator Beardsley introduced a resolution providing that the changes in the rules suggested by him be put into effect. He indicated it would limit the introduction of bills in the senate to the first thirty days of the session.

The question of teaching German and other languages in the schools came before the senate again with the introduction of a bill by Senator William E. Bowen of New Haven, providing that all subjects taught in the schools must be taught in the English language. It also provided that the schools may teach such subjects if on the advice of principals required it.

The house after much discussion accepted a minority report of the committee on judiciary A, by which members recommended indefinite postponement of the bill relating to the selection of petit jurors.

Representative Barker of Posey county said the bill would eliminate many farmers from jury duty and would make them feel that they were inadequate.

Representative Jinnett's bill providing for the assessment of real estate every year instead of every four years was killed in the house with the adoption of the committee report recommending indefinite postponement.

The senate passed Senator Moorehead's bill providing for the observance of November 11 as Armistice Day.

TO CONTINUE NEXT WEEK

The revival services which have been in progress at the Methodist Episcopal church in New Salem will continue through next week. The pastor, the Rev. Mr. Pickett has charge of the meetings.

DECLARES FAITH VITAL PRINCIPAL

Dr. Mumhall Says it Brings Believer Irrevocably Into The Obedience of Christ

TWO MEETINGS THURSDAY

Tide is Rising Steadily in Methodist Revival—Men Only Meeting Sunday, 3 P. M.

The tide is steadily rising in the revival meetings in St. Paul's church. The three o'clock meeting yesterday afternoon was in every way good. The subject of discourse was the same as the day before—"Acceptable Prayer."

The evangelist showed by the scriptures that it must be in the spirit, in the name of Jesus, by faith and we, all the while doing our part. All prayer must be to the Father, Dr. Mumhall said, in the name of Jesus, by the Holy Spirit and it is neither justified nor honest for us to ask God to do for us what we can do for ourselves—nor yet right to ask him to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves, until we have first done all we can to bring to pass the thing we want done.

The attendance at the night service was the largest yet. Dr. Mumhall announced that he would speak on "Sanctification" tonight and called attention to the meeting for men only to be held Sunday at 3 p. m., tickets of admission to which are being distributed; free of cost. He then called attention to James 1: 22 "Be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only deceiving your own selves."

He declared that faith was not a passive, but vital principal, bringing the believer wholeheartedly and irrevocably into the obedience of Christ. He then answered the following questions: Why? It is according to the law of life, for spiritual growth and for enjoyment. How? Intelligently, conscientiously, faithfully. Where? In your homes, in your business and professional life and anywhere and everywhere. When? Do with your might what your hands find to do and do it now. God says "Boast not thyself of tomorrow for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth," the speaker quoted. The fire bell rang just as the preacher began to make his application of the teaching and he dismissed the audience with the benediction.

HERKLESS CASE IS FINALLY COMPROMISED

Suit of Long Standing to Collect on Bond Coupons is Dismissed When City Settles

WAS SCHEDULED FOR TRIAL

A case of long standing in the circuit court, that of the State, ex rel, Herkless against the City of Rushville, which was a mandamus action in which A. R. Herkless sought judgment on coupons of a bond issue for the Arthur street improvement, has finally been dismissed. The case was to be heard last week, but the papers were missing, and it was scheduled for trial again this week when the court ordered the papers restored.

It is understood that a compromise was reached between the two parties in which Mr. Herkless received the full amount of judgment asked for and the costs in the case, which amounted to $160.

The plaintiff constructed the Arthur street improvement, and the street later was torn up to install the sewer system, and Herkless was paid in bonds. About three years ago he could not collect in the coupons remaining on the bonds, which caused the action to be filed.

BOY BURGLAR TELLS OF CAREER OF CRIME

Fred Heede, 17, Indianapolis Youth, Describes to Police How he Robbed Several Homes

CAUGHT COMMITTING THEFT

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21—Fred (Fritz) Heede, seventeen-year-old burglar, caught Thursday night when ransacking the home of W. G. Boyd, 4203 Park avenue, today told detectives how he had entered and robbed several north side homes in the last few weeks and agreed to accompany them on a tour of the city to point out the places he had visited. Heede was caught by Walter White, sergeant in charge of one of the police emergency squads, a short time after he had entered the Boyd home. He is held under high bond on charges of burglary and grand larceny.

C. J. Kavanaugh, 4248 Park avenue saw the burglar in the Boyd home and notified the police and a number of his neighbors. The neighbors, armed with shotguns and revolvers, took strategic posts outside the house and remained on guard until the arrival of the emergency squad.

Heede had broken the glass in one of the windows at the Boyd home enabling him to unlock the window. Sergeant White entered through the same opening and was going through the dining room of the house into a hallway when he found Heede at work.

Heede was wearing a fur-lined overcoat believed to have been stolen from the home of Stanley Bohannon, 324 East Thirty-sixth street which was entered a few nights ago, and also had on a pair of trousers which he said he had stolen from a house near Broadway and Forty-sixth street.

VIENNA PROFITEERS DRIVEN FROM CITY

Mobs Form in Streets and Labor Organizations Deliver Ultimatum That Prices Must Decline

LEADERS DO NO VIOLENCE

(By United Press)

Vienna, Jan. 21.—Mobs such as those which formed during the revolution in the streets of Paris, gathered here today when hundreds of profiteers were driven to the country.

Shouting threats and rumbling menacingly, the mob followed a wagon in which was erected a great requisite gallows. Police officers made no attempt to interfere with the march. The leaders attempted no violence.

Meanwhile labor organizations served an ultimatum on the government giving it three days in which to reduce the price of necessities.

The temper of the crowd and the labor threat may force immediate action from the government. It was believed that probably assaults would be made on stores and some of the stock be confiscated.

THEFT AT SHELBYVILLE

That the state intends to go into the skunk business on a large scale is denied by officials of the conservation department, who say the lowly skunk never was very popular with the public.

As a pet the skunk has never been

WHITE RECOMMENDS DISARMAMENT PARLEY

Washington, Jan. 21—If President-elect Harding should issue a call for a disarmament conference when he takes office, the people of the great powers would inform their government to respond, Peace Delegate White told the house naval affairs committee today. Such an invitation by President Wilson would probably produce no results, White added, because he is an outgoing president.

The time is at hand for disarmament, he said, and added that a conference should be called soon after Harding enters the White House.

"The conference should be held in Washington as it is almost impossible for representatives abroad to appreciate the feeling in this country," the witness stated. "Another great war would be so much more horrible than the last war that whole nations would be wiped out. The danger of another such war would be greater with no disarmament agreement."

He stated a great plan for disarmament of both military and navies should include the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy, but that the plan only should take in United States, Great Britain and Japan, as great naval powers.

Frayed Trousers Convince This Tailor Sen. Watson Is Upright Man

Believing that "The Apparel Off Doth Proclaim the Man." This Fellow Becomes Admirer of Hoosier Statesman When He Does a Job of Pressing.

In the height of a political campaign it is quite the custom to make malign charges against candidates for public office. Candidates even for president to say nothing of senator and governor have been, again and again the victims of this method of campaigning. Senator James E. Watson has been the subject of this kind of abuse more, perhaps, than any man in public life.

In this connection the story is going the rounds that a certain tailor of Indianapolis is the last campaign was quite convinced in his own mind that Senator Watson was "controlled by the interests" and was a most unworthy and absolutely unfit man for public position. About ten days before the election one of the bell boys of the Columbia Club brought to this particular tailor by mere chance, a pair of trousers belonging to Senator Watson to be pressed. It was a hurry-up job, and it seems was the only pair that the Senator had at the time. The tailor started on the job of pressing them, and to his amazement discovered that the trousers were badly frayed at the edge and worn and showed other evidence that the owner was apparently not spending his money for elegance in clothes. This tailor is in the custom of judging people according to the clothes they wear, and believes that "the apparel oft doth proclaim the man."

He at once said: "I am a Jim Watson man from this day forward. Any statesman who is forced to wear clothes for so long a time as these have been worn is surely a square and up-right man and I am for him to the limit."

He thereupon did a fine job of pressing and made the aged trousers look like new. The tailor has since been an ardent Watson man.

Got The Real Thing

"For five long years I suffered with stomach trouble and what the doctors called gall stone colic, and all said nothing but an operation would do me an good. A friend who had taken your medicine advised me to try it, and I found it to be the real thing. I feel better than I have in eight years and I am praising God for Mayr's Wonderful Remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. All Druggists.—(Adv.)

commendation shall be made not later than March 21, and if approved by the board, proceedings thereafter shall be had as provided in Sec. 152.

"The state board of tax commissioners reserves the right in its own initiative to order a reassessment of any real estate as provided in said Sec. 152.

"Taxpayers are required to take notice of these rules and govern themselves accordingly.

"And it is ordered that notice of the adoption of said rules be promulgated by having the same printed for distribution and also by posting the same at the door of the Courthouse in each county in the state."

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

The Always Present Class of the Main Street Christian Sunday school was entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Earl Osborn. The meeting was one of the best ever held by the class at the attendance, numbering fifteen, was larger than usual. After the business meeting, the evening was enjoyed socially and light refreshments were served.

The Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul's M. E. church will meet in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon, January 25, instead at the home of Mrs. Frank Sample, as previously planned. The business session will start at two o'clock and will close at three so the ladies may have the privilege of attending the afternoon meetings being held at the church.

Miss Rowena Kennedy sang a beautiful solo and was accompanied on the piano by Miss Olive Buell.

During the business session delegates were elected to the Continental Congress to be held in the near future. Those elected were Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol, regent, and her alternate was Miss Emma Casady; and Mrs. A. L. Gary, her alternate being Mrs. J. J. Amos.

Correct Way to Receive Burglar.

The old plan of offering a burglar a cigarette and asking him to take a chair while you telephone to the police is not now so successful as in the past. The best plan is to tackle the fellow right away. For this purpose you should step behind him, take hold of his coat and force it over his face. Then tie his left arm to his right leg across the back. Properly carried out, this method rarely fails.—London Punch.

TWO CONFERENCE GAMES THIS WEEK

Many Important Basketball Contests Will Hold The Interest During The Week End

COLLEGE TEAMS IN ACTION

Indiana Meets Minnesota Friday Night and Purdue Plays Ohio State on Saturday

(By HEZE CLARK)
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21—More important week end basketball games are scheduled for college and high school teams of the Hoosier state than ever before this season. Two important conference games hold the center of interest, Indiana meeting Minnesota at Minneapolis Friday night and Purdue playing Ohio State at Columbus Saturday.

Indiana got away with a flying start with its conference games defeating both Ohio State and Michigan.

Indiana by its top heavy 31 to 10 victory over Northwestern University at Bloomington last Monday took a lead in the Conference basketball standing with three conference games won.

Purdue's one sided defeat of Northwestern last week came as a surprise as Northwestern had defeated Wisconsin. It would seem that basketball played in the Hoosier state is better than that played in other states.

Wabash college's one sided victory over Millikin and two other Illinois colleges proved this and now Coach Wann's Milliken team which defeated two conference quintets will play Pete Vaughan's "Little Giants" at Crawfordsville Saturday.

An event of unusual interest is the week-end trip of the Indiana Dental College Basketball team Friday, the Indiana Dentals will play the Northwestern University Dental Team at the Patton gymnasium in Evanston, Illinois. This is the first big game between the two leading dental colleges of the Central West and the even is attracting unusual attention.

Notre Dame opened up last week by swamping Armour Tech in Chicago, but this was expected as Armour showed so poorly against both Butler and Indiana on its southern trip and the Catholic team was expected to find the Chicago five easy. However, Notre Dame had to put out all it had to defeat Valparaiso University and it would seem that Valpo has a strong team this year.

Clock Running Since 1824.
A privileged party is being conducted through the state rooms of the White House in Washington had their attention directed to the handsome clock upon the mantel of the blue room, presented by the French to President Andrew Jackson in 1824. "It was running then," proclaimed the chief usher of the mansion boastfully, "and it's been running ever since." Louis XIV's own clock, by the way, at Versailles, has been running regularly since 1634.

"NOBODY KNOWS HOW I SUFFERED" SHE SAYS

Mrs. Sheets Remembering How Tanlac Restored Father and Mother Takes It Herself With Wonderful Results.

"We just think Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world at our house and can never praise it enough for what it has done for us," was the sincere statement made by Mrs. C. A. Sheets, of 808 W. Superior St., Ft. Wayne, in relating her gratifying experience with the medicine.

"The influenza left me in a terribly weak rundown condition, and no one knows how dreadfully I did suffer. Everything I ate soured and caused an awful burning sensation in my stomach and kept me in constant pain. I had sick headaches nearly all the time, would become very dizzy, and was so nervous I trembled like a leaf. My kidneys also bothered me a great deal, I had severe pains across my back, and just felt worn out all the time. I had no energy at all, nothing I took seemed to do me any good, and I was very much discouraged over my condition.

"Remembering how my mother and father used to get splendid results from Tanlac, when I was living at home with them, I started taking the medicine, and it proved to be the very thing I was needing. It gave me a wonderful appetite, and only took three bottles to relieve me of all my troubles and build me up to health and strength. I never have an ache or pain, sleep like a child every night and feel just fine all the time. My husband took the medicine also after he had the influenza, and it set him right in a little while. I used to be a nurse and think I'm capable of judging a good medicine when I see it, and don't hesitate to say Tanlac is the best I have ever found."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2.—(Adv.)

Hindsight and Foresight

The United States tariff commission recently issued a special report as follows on agricultural staples: "The recent rapid growth in the receipts of foreign foodstuffs has attracted widespread comment, and has been the cause of tariff agitation of farmers and allied interests. The subject has been injected into the current political situation, and this report is therefore timely."

"Timely," indeed. It may be timely from the historical standpoint, but scarcely from the standpoint of statesmanship. If the tariff commission were serving the purpose for which it was created, it would undoubtedly have looked ahead and foreseen the "recent rapid growth in the receipts of foreign foodstuffs," and warned the country and the congress of such a catastrophe. Such a warning might have prevented just what the tariff commission is now explaining as having happened. It's useless to look the barn after the horse is stolen. It was the conception of most people that the tariff commission was formed more to take preventative measures rather than to attempt to cure the ills of the republic brought about by foreign competition.

Keep Going!

Everybody expects 1921 to be a prosperous year, but that is no reason why anyone should slacken their efforts. That is the one thing that should be avoided.

The situation calls for energetic and persevering production on the part of all people, regardless of how great or how humble their station in life may be.

We can not expect great prosperity to come to us if we leave the burden of production to a few, nor can we expect confidence to be maintained if idleness and shiftlessness prevail where thrift and energy are possible.

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapiesin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapiesin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs so little at drug stores.

THE TREND of LEGISLATION

BY GEO. W. STOUT
State Chamber of Commerce

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21.—Human legislation and public health measures are to share legislative attention along with the plans for proper support for the schools. While there may be more or less time wasted over the primary law, over the regular biennial demand for the abolishment of the public service commission, the state board of accounts and other bodies, over salary increase bills and in the effort to increase the number of courts, there will be no neglect of the urgent problems to be solved on behalf of the 16,715 wards of the State who were in various institutions last fall.

It may be said in passing that the move started in the house to abolish the Indiana Public Service Commission probably will not get far, though it may pass the house. Measures of this sort often tend to clog the machinery and take valuable time which might well be devoted to work instead of gallery-aimed debate. While the commission has adjusted rates for public utilities in the period when all other purveyors of service and commodities were adjusting their own charges upward, this has been done, as the record ought to show with avowed purpose of playing fair with the utilities and to make it possible for them to go on giving service to the people.

In order to make a case for abolition against the public service body it will be necessary for those back of the abolishment bill to show that utilities have been favored improperly.

Those who have given most intelligent and thorough study to the Indiana situation in the matter of insane wards are urging that an additional hospital shall be provided to care for some 1,500 insane unfortunates who now are denied shelter and care by an inadequately equipped State, and that all the existing hospitals shall be enlarged. It is pointed out that no hospital for the insane ought to be permitted to go on caring for 500 or 600 when the best practicable basis for such an institution is practically double that number of inmates or patients, and when the need for added facilities is so urgent as it is in the state today.

Indiana has gone into the farm colony plan in handling certain classes of its wards, and a splendid success has been made of the farm colony system where properly applied. It has been found by test and experience, however, that insane persons may be employed under the farm colony plan only to a limited extent. Those in touch with this problem declare that not more than 10 or 12 percent of the inmates of the average hospital for the insane can be permitted to take advantage of outdoor employment such as is offered by the farm colony system. The example of Easthaven is cited as showing that with a large farm colony in operation for several years and some 600 patients to draw from,

We have reached the crest of our wave of depression which follows every great war, and are descending safely on the other side.

What we want to do now is to keep going until we float into the harbor of commercial sanity and permanent prosperity.

It is charged that the railroads are milking the public in order to fight the unions. But the public is not greatly interested. It expects to be milked anyway, and it makes no difference which side turns the trick.

After he rids himself of the vice presidency Mr. Marshall may be considered of sufficient importance to break into the public prints occasionally.

only 56 are working on the farm. Where a farm is conducted in direct and immediate connection with the hospital for the insane it is a splendid and helpful adjunct and means not only healthful exercise and outdoor wholesome employment for those who are fit to work and able to do so, but it also means a certain degree of self-support for the institution.

While plans are understood to be on foot to establish a farm colony for the Central Hospital for the Insane, the colony to be some fifteen miles distant from the institution, the question has arisen whether it is advisable to make this innovation under existing circumstances. It is said that only 10 or 12 per cent of the inmates of this institution are available for work at a farm colony. All these workers already are usefully employed at this institution on lines similar to those to be followed at the proposed additional farm. It is averred that to take these working inmates away from the hospital to give them other tasks on a distant farm would merely compel the management of the hospital to hire high-priced outside labor to perform the tasks now being done by these inmates. The economics of the situation will be called to legislative attention. It may be pointed out that the small part of the insane population able to perform labor is about 20 per cent efficient, and 100 of them at work would be equivalent to fewer than a score of intelligent laborers.

As with the hospitals for the insane, so with the feeble minded: It is necessary to provide ample hospital and housing facilities for the unfortunates, and to take from the institutions for farm colony purposes only those who have been made physically fit and trained in some measure for productive effort on the land.

The farm colony being developed at Buttrickville for the feeble-minded is to be the dwelling place only of those who have reached maturity and who have received a degree of training to enable them to perform useful tasks.

A certain proportion of the feeble-minded youth in the Fort Wayne school are working on two farms not far from that school. Others who are not fitted for farm labor are being directed on lines found peculiarly adapted to the individual. The inmates of this institution are busy at varied tasks. They make their own shoes, their clothing, their mattresses and various other things used in the institution while the farms produce foodstuffs in large quantities for the school.

In support of the urgent call for extension at the various hospitals for the insane and for the erection of an additional hospital, it is being pointed out that the new hospital at Madison has passed through its doors no fewer than 3,500 unfortunates since it was thrown open. It is also suggested that other states, notably New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio, are building new hospitals for their insane and making additions to their existing hospitals. New York is putting up a new institution to care for 5,000 inmates, and is working on facilities to care for her wards up to 1927. Illinois is putting up a hospital at Kankakee, or extending the plant there to care for 5,000. Pennsylvania and Ohio are doing the same thing. Indiana is behind in this humane and vital matter. It is hoped an agreement may be reached both on methods and on necessary enlargements.

SECOND JUNKET FOR LEGISLATORS

State Body Leaves in the Morning on Special Train For The Calumet Region

FEW ARE OPPOSED TO TRIP

So Far This Session Four Such Trips Have Been Accepted And all Expenses Paid

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21—With the exception of a few "conscientious objectors" to legislative junketing trips, members of the Indiana legislature were preparing today for their trip to Lake county, the second junket of the present session.

A special train will leave here at one o'clock tomorrow morning, carrying them to Lake county. They will go first to Hammond, arriving here at 7 o'clock for breakfast at the Hammond Country Club. After breakfast they will make an automobile trip to the important centers of the Calumet region, including East Chicago, Whiting, and Indiana Harbor. At Gibson Point, a railroad switching center, they will board a train for Gary, arriving there in time for luncheon at the Gary Commercial Club. In the afternoon they will make a trip through the steel mills of Gary following which the Commercial Club will be the host again, serving dinner in the evening.
Then they will return to Hammond and board a train for the return trip to Indianapolis.

The expenses of the trip will be paid by Lake county civic organizations, just as the expenses of the recent Lafayette junket were paid by the Lafayette Rotary Club.

Among the legislators staying in Indianapolis or going to their homes for the week-end were those who are opposed to the junketing policy adopted by the legislature when it voted to accept invitations to go to Lafayette, Gary and Terre Haute.
The senate also accepted an invitation to visit Evansville.

Representative John Winesburg, of North Manchester is one of those who object to the junkets. He did not make the trip to Lafayette and he said he is not going to Gary nor to Terre Haute when the latter visit is made, probably on January 29.

The position taken by these objectors is that they do not want to be obligated to enact legislation favorable to any section of the state and also that the members of the legislature should remain at their desks here until the work of the present session is accomplished.
Members of the Lake county delegation have insisted, however, that they had no ulterior motive in extending the invitation to visit the Calumet region.

Senator William Brown of Lake county was in charge of entertainment of the senate and Representative J. Glenn Harris, also of Lake county, will care for members of the lower house.

GOOD GAMES TONIGHT ARE ON THE PROGRAM

Coming of Columbus and Laurel Teams Expected to Provide Best Games Of Season

NEW FACES ON LOCAL SECONDS

Two good basketball games will be on the program tonight at the Graham Annex gymnasium, when the Columbus high school meets the first team and the second string men will take on the Laurel high school in a preliminary game.

A few weeks ago the Laurel team swamped the second team at Laurel and tonight a new team will go up against the visitors. The second team will probably start tonight with Reynolds and Tittsworth at forward;
Davis at center; Phillips and Cartmel at guards. The first team will start with their regular line up against Columbus. The visitors have recovered themselves in the last few games played and expect to show much improvement tonight.

A game was scheduled for next Saturday night with the Brookville high school here, but the Franklin county team cancelled the game.
Only a few more games remain on the schedule before the tournament.
Next Friday night the team will go to Connersville, and a game is pending for Tuesday night, Feb. 1 with the Greensburg high school, on the latter's floor, which will take the place of the cancelled game last week. The next home game will be with Newcastle on Feb. 4, and the last two games will be played on foreign fields, at Shelbyville Feb. 11 and Richmond 28.

TO ELECT TRUSTEES

There will be a special call meeting of the quarterly conference of the United Brethren church rooms, corner of Seventh and Arthur, January 31, for the purpose of electing a board of trustees. Every member of the finance committee is requested to be present by the order of the conference superintendent,
Dr. J. E. Shannon.

Farm Bureau As Agriculture's National Voice is Powerful

(Reprinted from the Country Gentleman)

By HARRY R. O'BRIEN

One million five hundred thousand farmers in particular and some six million farmers in general will have their eyes focused on Indianapolis next week. Many of the remaining ninety-odd million Americans will turn their eyes in the same direction. For in that town the directors, delegates and executive committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation will assemble for the second annual meeting of this, the newest largest and most potential of all farm organizations every set in motion in this land.

When delegates from more than thirty states met at Chicago a year ago, adopted a tentative form of organization and elected Jim Howard, an Iowa farmer, as temporary president, the federation faced the world an unknown factor. The organization, its aims and purposes were unknown, misunderstood or underestimated.

Today it is known from one end of the country to the other. Its officers are put on the front pages of the big city newspapers when they come to town and are invited to address the most influential gatherings in the land. Presidential candidates, cabinet members, congressmen, governors, other men high in affairs, listen to the Farm Bureau with respect, and some of them if the truth were known, with fear. The bureau has taken its place as a great national farm voice.

There is a certain club in Washington which from time to time influential men are invited to address. No reporters being present, the speakers are at liberty to talk quite freely and discuss matters of official or semiofficial nature.

Fifteen minutes after one of these meetings had closed Gray Silver Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, was called on the telephone by a man who has a sympathetic interest in the welfare of the livestock farmers of the country. He had just come from the club meeting, he said, and he told Mr. Silver that a certain government official in addressing the club had said that the Shipping Board was planning to break the high price of meat in this country by equipping a line of ships with refrigerator space, hauling cheap meat from Argentina and Australia and throwing it on the markets of the United States.

Early next morning Mr. Silver was at the offices of the shipping Board. From his description of what followed he must have made noise enough to comport with the volume of farmer interest which he represents. Unable to secure audience with the official he had come to see, he served verbal notice on a subordinate, that he would send out a statement to the farmers of the nation regarding the remarks alleged to have been made at the meeting the previous night unless the Shipping Board cared to make an official statement on the matter.

Shortly afterward a statement appeared declaring the Shipping Board did not have any plans nor did it contemplate any for equipping ships to bring meat into the country. Thus was the matter cleared up promptly, because the Farm Bureau Federation had its ear to the ground in Washington and had the voice of a million and a half farmers with which to back up its request for a quick hearing.

In the past year it has been the task of J. R. Howard, president of the federation, to speak for the farmers of America in a large way to business, to organized labor and to industry. From comparative obscurity as an Iowa farmer, Howard has been carried forward in his position as Farm Bureau executive to the place where he has become a national figure. For example, he addressed the United States Chamber of Commerce at its summer meeting. Thus organized business of America listened to the organized farmers.

Howard, Silver and other officers

Rep. Abrams Quots Scripture But Can't Tell Where To Find It

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21—Representative Henry Abrams of Indianapolis, is in the habit of quoting scripture from the bible while making arguments for or against a bill on the floor of the state house of representatives.

In a recent argument, he was quoting a sentence of scripture when Representative Jinnett, a minister, questioned him as to the passage he was quoting.

Abrams answered "it comes from the first page; I am not sure what the name of the book is or the chapter, but it is there".

Farm Bureau as Agriculture's National Voice is Powerful

 of the federation have been quoted in the greatest daily newspapers in the land. Influential magazines have come to them for facts or for opinions. Both national political parties have sought their disinterested advice. These men have done much in one year's time to elevate agriculture as a whole to a higher plane, to help it take its due place as our greatest national industry. This is the biggest single achievement of the American Farm Bureau Federation. There are, however, other and more immediate results that bear telling.

The American Farm Bureau Federation has presented the American farmer in national affairs in a way that he has never been represented before. Speaking as a single voice for its more than a million members, it has, through its Washington office, compelled attention to the problems of the farmer—the big fundamental problems that concern agriculture and the nation as a whole.

For instance, when the bureau learned that big steel boats on the Great Lakes were making trips without full loads of freight, their cargoes mainly boxes and packages that could be handled easily, the United States Shipping Board was asked why these vessels were not hauling wheat. There was a great freight congestion and tie-up. Cars were short everywhere, and here was something that might relieve the shortage and help the farmers of the Middle West who wanted their wheat and hogs hauled to market.

The boats had no bulkheads for handling grain, and it would take $5,000 a boat to build them in, said the board. Three days of argument were necessary before the board agreed to equip two ships for handling grain. The cost proved to be but $3,000 each. The thing worked. Later all thirty-six steel ships on the lakes under control of the board were equipped at a cost of only $1,800 apiece. One of these ships is able to bring down the equivalent of two trainloads of wheat at a trip, so many cars were released to handle other freight.

Shortly after this Mr. Silver sat in the lobby of a hotel in Washington telling the story to a friend. A man, overhearing him, spoke up:

"Why don't you do something about the wooden boats?"

"Why", said Silver, "I did not know we had any."

"Why yes," answered the man.

"Ever since 1916 a fleet of wooden vessels has been tied up in the docks at Detroit out of commission because, under a rate granted the railroads and made possible by the working of the LaFollette Seamen's Bill, the railroads have been permitted to haul grain from Chicago to Buffalo for 3.8 cents and to charge ten cents from Buffalo to New York City. This has driven all wheat shipments from the lakes to the railroads. For four years, over the war period, with so much depending upon transportation, these boats have remained idle because no one has seen fit to do anything."

Amazed, Silver went to the Shipping Board and found that this was true. Boats sufficient to carry 23,000,000 bushels of wheat at one trip had been idle for four years. The railroads said they were short 100,000 cars. The Farm Bureau had found three-quarters of them. The Illinois Agricultural Association found most of the other 25,000; but that is another story.

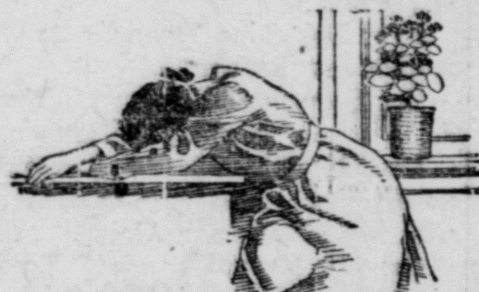

With a governor from a Middle-Western state, who had heard of the situation and wanted to help, the Farm Bureau men went to see certain influential railway officials in Washington to demand that something be done to change the rates, put these boats to work hauling wheat and release railway cars to haul other farm products from the Middle West. The railroads smiled at the visitors. They said it was impossible to do anything.

"Now look here"—Mr. Silver quotes himself, "Do you railway men know that the farmer members of the American Farm Bureau Federation, in a referendum, voted almost unanimously against government ownership of railroads? But do you think for a minute that, if I went to them with the story of what you men have permitted to be done in wartime, they would not reverse their action in short order? The farmers right now are with you. Here's a chance for you to do something for them. You either do it or the Farm Bureau will tell the farmers of America that you have refused, and why?"

Whereupon those railway executives looked at each other again, but with a different sort of smile on their faces. The Farm Bureau men left.

To days later, for the first time in history, the railroads, of their own volition, went to the Interstate Commerce Commission and asked that rates be adjusted to the basis of permitting a competing water rate. The commission not only did this but even gave the boats a differential rate, and now the wooden boats are back in commission on the lakes and, whenever required, are hauling grain.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

What Edison did during the War

THE official announcement is out. Ask us for your copy of "What Edison Did During the War." Write for it, if you can't call.

It tells how Edison left his home and business and went to sea, how Edison's "Yankee magic" foiled the German submarines.

The bulletin tells many other things Edison did while Chairman of the Naval Consulting Board. It explains how Edison kept the price of his phonograph at bed rock during an era of high costs and soaring prices. Since 1914 the New Edison has advanced in price less than 15%—and part of this is war tax.

This bulletin also describes the Budget Plan, which makes it possible for every home to enjoy the benefits of good music without feeling the financial outlay.

Comedy Program at Princess

Pa's pretty frisky after all! There are lots of self-satisfied young fellows who seem to think their fathers are out of the running until something happens to wake them up. That's what occurs in "An Amateur Devil," Bryant Washburn's new Paramount comedy which will be displayed at the Princess Theatre for the last time today. Carver Endicott, a rather too precise young man, tires his fiancée with his "peppery" love-making. In desperation she announces her engagement to his father, a gay widower.

Carver decides that the only way to end the match is to disgrace the family so the girl won't dare marry into it. He tries various sorts of "disgraceful work," even to accepting a job as buss boy in a restaurant only to find that instead of being thought less of, the newspapers made great capital of his "example to the pampered and lazy working-man!"

Of course, everything comes out all right after a series of typically Washburnian situations, replete with humor. The turn of the story is novel and the whole production is most excellently cast. Ann May is the leading woman.

Could Have Saved $500 He Declares

Anderson man had spent lots of money seeking relief from catarrh of head, liver trouble and constipation.

Three bottles of Dreco gave wonderful relief and wife joins in praise.

"If I had only gotten hold of this Dreco medicine sooner I could have saved at least five hundred dollars that I have spent trying to restore my health," declared Mr. James Logan of 2640 Meridian St., Anderson, Ind.

"I had a very bad liver which gave me headaches, dizzy spells, coated tongue and foul breath. My stomach was out of order so that my food disagreed with me and failed to produce strength. I was annoyed by catarrh of the head which kept me clearing my throat hawking and spitting. I'd be stopped up in my head every morning and I also had ringing noises in my ears. My back-ached and my limbs were so full of pain that I could hardly walk.

"The above was my condition when I began taking Dreco. I have now taken three bottles of this grand medicine and my troubles are over. My liver is active, never, have a dizzy spell or headache, bowels act regular, stomach is strong as ever in my life, kidneys bother no more which over came the backache and I haven't a sign of catarrh. I have gained six pounds and feel good all over. My wife joins me in praising this great remedy Dreco."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—(Adv.)
